SOFTWARE DEVELOPER

I am a student of Information Technology at the University College of Cartago, I have the aspiration to become a great programmer, I am currently still studying, improving my skills as a programmer and studying new technologies.

EXPERIENCE

Off-campus programming tutor

I was a tutor for about a year for technical college students.

I also tutored some students at the university I attend for programming levels I, II, III & IV.

I have worked with technologies such as Vue and React Native in both university and personal projects
